ABOUT OUR CHANCELLOR

Dr. Sri Sri Pitambar Dev Goswami, the Chancellor of Auniati University and present Satradhikar of Sri Sri Auniati Satra, was born on 14th June 1959 at Bijoymahora Satra in Duliajan, Assam. Young Pitambar got his spiritual education from Satradhikar Sri Sri Hem Chandra Dev Goswami and Dekasatradhikar Sri Sri Bishnu Chandra Dev Goswami. His formal primary education started in the primary school of Auniati Satra at Majuli and thereafter he completed his matriculation, higher secondary, and bachelor's degree in Guwahati. He then completed his Master's degree in Assamese literature from Gauhati University. He revived the age-old Dharma Prakash Yantra from where the second Assamese news magazine Assam Bilasini was published in the year 1872 by his predecessor Sri Sri Devdutta Dev Goswami. He successfully invigorated the press with a new establishment under Dharma Prakash Yantra's name and regularly published a quarterly magazine in the name of Sanskriti Pallav since 2000. Under his able leadership, the Kaliapani branch of the Auniati Satra was established in the year 2004. Sri Goswami also acquired a Ph.D. degree in literature for his thesis on Satriya Utsavar Parichoyaru Tatparya Vichar from Dibrugarh University. Dr. Goswami has written more than a hundred articles in different magazines and newspapers and has ten dramas and eighteen books to his credit. Dr. Sri Sri Pitambar Dev Goswami was invited to join the World Heritage Conference under UNESCO at Lijiang, China in October 2001. He also visited Singapore, the USA, and Dubai in connection with the establishment of Naamghar and related cultural activities. He received the 'Sudhakantha Bhupen Hazarika samhati award' from Golaghat AASU in 2024. He recently received a D. Litt degree from the prestigious Assam Down Town University. He also received the 'Rasaraj Lakshminath Bezbaruah Award' from Sivasagar, Assam.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Auniati University, established on November 8, 2022, is a pioneering institution deeply rooted in the rich cultural and spiritual heritage of Assam, India. The university's foundation is inspired by the age-old Vaishnavite traditions of Assam, which emphasize humility, non-violence, self-discipline, truthfulness, and service to others. These values are integrated into the university's academic philosophy, student life, and community outreach, providing a unique and holistic educational experience.

The university's mission is to reintroduce the essence of ethics, morality, and spiritual consciousness into mainstream education, thereby nurturing not just informed minds, but enlightened souls. Auniati University believes that the ultimate aim of education is not only to prepare students for careers but also to shape them into moral leaders and socially responsible individuals. Therefore, moral education is interwoven across all academic programs, encouraging students to reflect upon their responsibilities towards society, the environment, and future generations.

The university operates through three vibrant campuses, each offering a serene and eco-friendly environment conducive to deep learning and contemplation. The main campus is located in Teok, Jorhat, with additional campuses in Majuli, the cultural heart of Assam, and North Guwahati. Each campus is equipped with well-curated libraries and heritage museums that house rare collections of traditional artifacts, ancient manuscripts, and cultural relics.

Auniati University's academic programs are designed to meet the needs of a dynamic and evolving society. The university offers a diverse range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and research programs in various disciplines, including Assamese, Economics, Education, English, Folklore, Geography, History, Library and Information Science, Performing Arts, Philosophy, Political Science, Rural Development, Sanskrit, and Sociology.
